Kishi Nixes Ike's Visit

Japanese Premier Fearful of Violence

MANILA (UPI)—President Eisenhower, his trip to Japan cancelled, said an emotional farewell to the Philippines tonight and sailed for Formosa amid cries of "Mabuhay" (long life) and the strains of an Army band's "Auld Lang Syne."

Before he left aboard the U.S.S. St. Paul, flagship of the U. S. Seventh Fleet, the President accepted with regret the decision of the pro-Western Japanese government to bow to Communists-led violence and call off his visit to Tokyo because it could not guarantee his safety.

JAPANESE PRIME MINISTER Nobusuke Kishi announced his decision personally following an emergency meeting of his Cabinet, while an estimated 25,000 left-wingers milled outside and screamed for his resignation.

As the President left the Manila farewells, a grim new note was injected with a report from Taipei that fears were growing in Formosa that Communist China might launch a massive artillery bombardment against the offshore Quemoy Islands to underscore the leftwing victory in forcing him to bypass Japan.

Allies Reported Shaken by Visit Cancellation

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The forced cancellation of President Eisenhower's visit to Japan aroused grave concern throughout the Free World today and touched off an early political debate in Congress.

Americans in all walks of life, from political leaders to the man in the street voiced relief that the President would not have to risk danger from the Communist-agitated mobs in Tokyo.

But Democratic leaders, accusing the administration of foreign policy blunders, said American prestige has been damaged severely.

In Europe and Asia the Tokyo trip's cancellation was looked upon as a major setback for the West and a propaganda triumph for Russia.

Radio Moscow informed Russians quickly that the Eisenhower visit to Japan was off.

Diplomatic officials here expected Russia and Communist China to give the development a big propaganda ride.

96-Years-Old

Frontier Fighter Ulysses Oles Dies

Funeral services for Ulysses S. Oles, a 96-year-old veteran of regular Army service during the frontier days of the West, will be held at 10 a. m. Friday in the Wiefels and Son Chapel here, with the Rev. Fred H. Strathdee, pastor of the Indio First Methodist Church officiating.

Oles died in Sawtelle Veterans Hospital after four months' illness, on Tuesday. He was the oldest veteran in the hospital, and reportedly the only aged regular Army veteran in Sawtelle.

A NATIVE OF Michigan, Oles served with the troops that opened the famed Cherokee Strip of Oklahoma to homesteaders in the dawn hours of Sept. 16, 1893.

CONTROLLING THE interior part of the Village Department Store and Jaklin's Gifts fire drew the attention of these firemen, while others were busy outside in a successful effort to halt the spread of the quarter of a million dollar blaze. Note the beam which has fallen, with another one threatening to drop at any minute. The firemen—19 strong—used all available hydrants, three, and had Palm Canyon and Andreas Road criss-crossed with hoses. Firemen estimated this morning that they had in use 1,600 feet of 2½-inch and 500 feet of 1½-inch hose. Police Department, with four off-duty men called in, was in charge of traffic control on Palm Canyon Drive and Indian Avenue. (Desert Sun Photo).

TOP REAR AREA OF THE building proved stubborn, and kept firemen busy for an hour after the fire was controlled in other areas. Above, firemen dislodge a cooler which blocked their efforts and let it drop to the sidewalk below. Nineteen firemen from both stations battled the blaze for three and a half hours in their successful efforts to keep it from spreading to adjacent structures and thereby averting possible loss of an entire city block. (Desert Sun Photo).

Minimum Wage Increase Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate and House Labor Committees were expected today to approve similar bills to raise the federal minimum wage to $1.25 an hour and broaden coverage to millions of workers.

SENATE UNIT WANTS TO DEAL 'KAYO' TO BOXING HOODLUMS

WASHINGTON (UPI)—An outraged member of a Senate subcommittee investigating boxing said today Congress should land a kayak punch on underworld elements by passing tough new laws to get rid of hoodlums who have infested the fight game.

As the committee recessed further hearings until August, Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.) asserted that "a hard sock in the jaw" at the boxing profession is needed.

Rancho Ramon Water Rate Hike Rejected by PUC

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The California Public Utilities Commission (PUC) today denied a request by the Rancho Ramon Water Co. for a $59,000-a-year increase in rates to some 1,100 customers in the Indio-Palm Springs area.

In turning down the proposal, which would have been an increase of 100 per cent, the commission ruled the company's activity "is largely developmental rather than operational."

The utility sought the increase on the basis of financial emergency which the commission rejected. At public hearings in Indio April 20-21, petitions containing 168 customers' names protested the increase.

In other action, the PUC announced it would hold public hearings June 22 in the Lompoc City Hall on the application of Vandenberg Utilities Co., a newly organized corporation, to serve the Vandenberg Village housing development.

Riviera's Fisher Dies of Attack

Robert O. Fisher, 43, a senior clerk and staff entertainment and publicity director for the Riviera Hotel, died in his home of an apparent heart attack early this morning.

Fisher, a bachelor who lived at 1525 Tamarisk Road, was found by a Palm Springs police officer at approximately 1:35 a. m. today. Investigating officers reported that the police had been requested to check the residence when Fisher failed to answer calls in his home.

LaMotta testified with a reported death threat hanging over his head.

SEN. PHILIP A. Hart (D-Mich.) chairman of the inquiry, said the underworld had gone too far when it tried to reach into a congressional hearing room and wield power.

Subcommittee counsel Rand Dixon said the threats helped prove one salient point: "Boxing is rotten from top to bottom" and should be cleaned up.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI)—Democratic Relations Judge Wayne Fogle was impartial as could be for eight years, handling 50,000 divorce and non-support cases. He also was bored silly.

"Monotonous routine," sighed Fogle Wednesday. "You're always sorting out other people's problems—the same ones all the time."

Fogle's term has 4½ years to run, or up to 25,000 more cases. He just couldn't face it.

The judge handed in his resignation, effective Sept. 1.

Karamanos Family Off on Summer Tour

By JEAN PATANE

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Karamanos and children Candy and Jimmy, left Saturday on a motor trip to visit relatives in Washington and North Dakota. Their first stop will be Walla Walla, where they will be guests at the homes of her mother, Mrs. Mildred Kroon, and her sister, Mrs. Gerry Karol, and son Billy. From there they will go to Spokane to see his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lancien, and children Penny, Bunny and John. He will be joined by his brother, who is stationed at Geiger Field, for a business trip to their former home in Canada, and also a week of fishing. Around the middle of July they plan to leave for Mandan, N. Dak., to visit with her father, A. O. Mayer, and then to Fargo, N. Dak., to the home of his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Skjodt, and children Mark, Ann and Billy. Before returning to the desert the early part of August, Mrs. Karamanos will attend her class reunion in Cassleton, N. Dak., for the first time in fifteen years.

Mrs. Eleanor Abbott left last Friday to visit at the home of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mussie, in Covina until after Father's Day.

The ninth birthday of Jeffrey Kemp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Urbane Kemp, was celebrated at his home on Iroquois Street, with a dinner party. Little League was the theme for the special occasion and was carried out in the favors that hung from a six foot manzanita tree decorated with vari-colored balloons.

Baseball games were played and the "Happy Birthday" cake was decorated by Jeffrey with a 10-inch high wire sculptured catcher with ball and mitt. Attending boys from his room at Cathedral City School: Bruce Blauvelt, Gregg Woodfin, Randy Sloboda, Alan Ames, Randy Patterson, David Ellis, Kit Ostdad, Micky Kirk, Harrison Karr, Bruce Goodman, Micky Novak, Ricky Buresh and Mike Colglazier.

Barbara Martens and Beth Grant, who makes her home in Rancho Mirage, returned a few days ago from a two week visit with Professor and Deborah Szekely at La Puerta Ranch in Tecate, Mexico. They left for Mexico from Three Arch Bay, Laguna, where they spent the Memorial Day weekend visiting Mrs. Edith Hess.

Tuesday, Wilen Anderson returned to his home from San Bernardino where he is attending college and majoring in psychology. He will spend the summer with his mother, Mrs. Ruby Anderson. Tuesday evening his

Supervisors Vote to Cut Own Salaries

Berkey, Anderson
Overruled in Vote
By County Board

In a surprise move which bordered on melodrama, Supervisor Curtis Chamberlain, who has previously opposed the cutting of supervisory salaries, voted this week with Supervisors Fred McCall and William Jones, to recommend to the state legislature that the salaries, boosted not long ago to $8,400 per year, be cut back to the previous $6,000 stipend.

It was obvious that McCall and Jones knew in advance of Chamberlain's intention, while on the other hand the two supervisors with whom he had formerly agreed, Supervisors George Berkey and Paul Anderson, were completely surprised at his action.

JONES INTERRUPTED a discussion of the proposed budget for 1960-61. "To set the pace for an economy program which we are going to have to exercise," said Jones, "I believe we should ask the state legislature to reduce our salaries to $6,000."

"This has been tried two or three times," retorted Supervisor Anderson. "The issue has been worn out. It is ridiculous to take time away from the business at hand to discuss the matter further." He referred to previous attempts of Jones and McCall to recommend the salary cut to the legislature, both of which failed with opposition from the other three board members.

"MAYBE THE BALL will roll the other way," said McCall, seconding Jones' motion. With the budget under discussion and the day's agenda out of the way, Board Clerk Weldon Patty had been dismissed. He was now called back to record the motion and call the roll.

Voting in their usual order, McCall and Jones voted approval of the cut.

WHEN YOU GO AWAY

This is vacation time. School is "out," and for some businesses in Palm Springs, the busiest season has passed. It's the time when many folks will be leaving for the beaches, the mountains, or trips to various parts of the world.

Before you go, however, you will want to have your house in order so that all will be secure when you return. Take the matter of water, for example. A few simple check-items are important.

- Check all faucets, toilets, etc., for leaks. Small ones grow to
- Satisfy yourself that your caretaker has complete instructions, and that your wishes will be followed.

- Notify the police of your absence. They appreciate knowing you are gone, and it could save you much regret.

Our ample supply of pure water is a blessing. Too much or too little of it, however, could be tragic. A few precautions before you go away are worth the effort.

Standard Gains Conservation Service Award

A Conservation Service Award has been presented to the Standard Oil Company of California by the U. S. Interior Department for an "outstanding wildlife conservation program" in which California's Yosemite, Sequoia, Kings Canyon and Lassen National Parks were featured.

J. N. Hitchcock, district sales manager of Standard said the parks were the subject of radio broadcasts in October and November heard here and throughout the Western States as part of the company's noted music-education series, "The Standard School Broadcast." The series has an estimated audience of more than 2,300,000 school children.

In his letter of citation to R. G. Sontag, chairman of the Board of Standard of California, Interior Secretary Fred Seaton acknowledged the company's 1959-60 conservation program (of which the radio series was a part) as "encouraging good citizenship among the youth of our nation."

Standard's prize-winning contribution to the cause of wildlife conservation also involved distribution of some 200,000 posters bearing conservation messages to school and national parks throughout California and ten other western states.

AUSTRALIAN PUPS LOOK FOR A HOME AT SHELTER HERE

Australian Shepherd puppies are currently awaiting a good home at the Palm Springs Humane Shelter Association, 395 Sunny Dunes Road.

The dogs are two months old, officials said.

Also at the Shelter is a Siamese cat, which is reported to have been found about a month ago, and was brought to the attention of the Shelter this week.

ALMANAC

Today is Thursday, June 16, the 168th day of the year, with 198 more in 1960.

The moon is in its last quarter.

The morning stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening stars are Mercury and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1858, former President John Quincy Adams began his three week speech on the floor of the House against annexation of Texas.

In 1858, Abraham Lincoln gave his speech in which he said: "A house divided against itself cannot stand."

In 1871, the Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine was established in New York City.

In 1933, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed the National Industrial Recovery Act.

In 1955, widespread riots broke out all over Buenos Aires, when the Navy made an unsuccessful attempt to oust President Juan Peron.

Thought for today: English writer Mortimer Collins, in "How Old Are You?" said: "A man is as old as he's feeling, a woman as old as she looks."

ARTS-CRAFTS, SWIMMING DUE FOR SUMMER RECREATION

Two of the most popular programs of summer recreation in recent years — Arts and Crafts and Swimming — will again highlight this year's schedule, it was announced this week by Howard Haddock, city recreation and special events director.

Both are scheduled to start next week and continue through Aug. 19.

ARTS AND CRAFTS, which attracts daily on an average of 100 children between the ages of eight (or third grade) to 14, will be operated four days a week — Tuesday through Friday — from 9 to 11:30 a.m. at Cielo Vista School.

Registration will be conducted the first week, and classes will start simultaneously. Cost is 50 cents per child or $1 per family per week.

OFFERED THIS year will be model airplane and boat building, for beginners and advanced; art, beginners and advanced; handcrafts of all kinds; modeling clay; storytelling; library; shell craft; playground operation; movies; belt and purse weaving, etc.

Seven teachers will be in charge of the Cielo Vista activity.

THE SWIMMING program at the High School pool will be in operation from 1 to 6 p.m., daily except Sunday. It also is expected to attract an average of 100 daily.

Admission charges are: Children under 13, 20 cents, six tickets for $1; adults, 50 cents, five tickets for $2.

IN ADDITION, Red Cross beginners swimming classes will be conducted Monday through Friday, for two weeks duration each. The first will start the week of June 27, with registration mandatory the previous week.

These two programs also lead in cost, being budgeted for approximately $2,000 each. The swimming fees will bring in about $1,600 and the arts and crafts about $300, Haddock said.

OTHER EVENTS scheduled during the summer are, by location:

Palm Springs Playhouse — Children's Tap, Ballet and Acrobatics, now under way and continuing to Aug. 17. Beginners,

Area Young GOP In Organization

INDIO — Organizational meeting of the Coachella Valley Young Republican's Club has been set for Monday, June 20, with the time and place yet to be determined, it was announced today.

Interested persons between the ages of 18 to 36 are invited to attend the meeting. Further information may be obtained by contacting Bobby Ruth or Larry Lee in Indio.

Mussouri, the north Indian hill station where Tibet's Dalai Lama is living in exile, is the home of the first brewery in India. It was established in 1850.

Unpremeditated Thoughts

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Even on so important a matter as the new Japanese treaty, you can't blame Senators for thinking "off the top of their heads," as the saying goes. Especially in an election year, this is about the only way they get a chance to think.

But sometimes the swift, unguarded commentary of a fast-talking statesman produces insights of value, like these from three Democratic members of the Foreign Relations Committee:

LONG OF LOUISIANA: He remarked that the Japanese Constitution adopted after World War II, during the American occupation, was the same sort of document which a number of Southern States accepted under duress during the Reconstruction Era. This was as shrewd a comment as a reporter is likely to hear. It drives to the heart of our Japanese relationships. It also drives into the very center of our lamentable adventure into unlimited internationalism.

While General Douglas MacArthur was proconsul of the conquered Japanese empire, the following unrealistic clause was dubbed into the new Constitution:

"THE JAPANESE people forever renounce war as a sovereign right of the nation," and to further this aim, "land, sea and air forces, as well as other war potential, will never be maintained."

Whether or not General MacArthur actually leaned on the Japanese politicians (who were anxious to do anything to accommodate), there is little doubt of the American influence on the document. It reeks with the pious pacifism of the postwar era. The fact that we had any part in such fiddlesticks has done lasting damage to American-Japanese relationships (NATO).

It could be argued that the Republican Party quelled itself for a full century in Dixie by trying to "reform" the South and obliterate its peculiar institutions. No nation or person, however wicked, likes to be regenrated by outsiders.

In a bigger sense, the language of the Japanese Constitution in renouncing war "as a sovereign right" shows exactly where we went off our rocker in the frantic practice of internationalism. For any country to surrender a substantial "sovereign right" is a contradiction of freedom.

THE "SOVEREIGN right" to wage war, however desirable peace may be, is precisely the fundamental right of self-determination. It is as basic as "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." For any American foreign policy to countenance subversion of nationalism in another country is so wrong that its failure is predestined.

Lausche of Ohio: He regards the Red-led rioting against the treaty in Japan as an argument for the treaty — not against it.

Lausche is not an internationalist. His natural inclinations, I judge from a warm acquaintanceship, would be against pressing our military interests upon a foreign, faraway people.

THIS TREATY is a military alliance, despite the coy language which calls it an agreement of "mutual cooperation and security with Japan." It is not as strong as we would like it, but it is as strong as we can make it under all circumstances. Some

GORE OF TENNESSEE: He asked Secretary Herter in open hearings why the "rush" for the Senate to approve this treaty? Why not wait till 1961 with a new President, fresh from the people, in the White House? I later learned from Senator Gore that he did not intend to suggest any delay. Gore said that Secretary Herter's reply — that any stalling by the Senate might raise questions as to our good faith — was satisfactory and "valid."

Still, the Tennessee Senator's line of inquiry revealed something that lurks in many American minds. There is a gnawing anxiety about the ability of the Eisenhower Administration to stumble through the final innings of its stint.

Further, there is a worrisome thing that certain Democratic candidates are not above making the Administration look bad — although it's the only Administration we've got to see us through this critical year.

The Happy Hour

With Eisenhower — whenever he's around — and that includes the President of the United States — sets out on a long and dangerous voyage, as indeed he has, he is comforted by the prospect of a happy landing, days or weeks later, on some strand from which the very memory of care and circumstance has forever prepared.

In the case of the President, who deserved better than the miserable tense valedictory on which he is launched, the happy hour will come a few weeks hence when his jet touches down at Hickman Air Force Base, on Oahu, in the great and wonderful State of Hawaii.

HE WILL STAY at the Marine Air Base on the other side of the Island from the splendid strands along Waikiki. He'll miss Chick Daniels and the other beachboys on the golden beach in front of the Royal Hawaiian, and the great Duke Kahonomoku down the sand at Henry Kaiser's place. And Doris Duke's and Col. Don Beachcomber's and all the other delights of the area, including Hana-Maui and the breathtaking natural beauty of the "Big Island" of Hawaii — where lava flows remains hot and reeking for months and even years after eruption.

But the President will have his little nine-hole Marine course at Kaneohe, the Marine Base at which he'll stay . . . and his fine little cottage hard by the first.

HE LOVES THAT place. Eight years ago, after his trip to Korea as President-elect, he couldn't have been happier to shore up there for a day or two. He punched some golf balls around the tropical paradise, talked shop with an old classmate named Omar Bradley who was then chairman of the Joint Chiefs.

Don Whitehead of the A.P., who won one of his Pulitzer prizes off that trip, and I went over to Ike's cabin one morning at Kaneohe, the Marine Base at a critical hour in history — would be (for him) worse than whatever physical punishment might be visited upon him.

WE HAD SEEN him a few days before, talking very quietly to his son, then assigned to an Army group up near the active Korean battle lines. I recall that his words to John Eisenhower when his words to John Eisenhower were transmitted in frost and steam that human flesh produced in sub-zero weather, and John's replies came back in the little intimate smog. I asked him what he had said to his son.

"I don't mind telling you," the President-elect of the United States said. "I told him that his mother and I could somehow manage to live if he got killed in action. That's the soldier's life. But I added that if they captured him and held him over my head as hostage, I couldn't serve as President."

I THINK HE'S saying much the same sort of thing, in his own behalf, by making this trip. He regards it as his soldierly duty — as well as his duty as a peace-maker — to go into strange lands where a crazed crackpot might very well knock him off. Not to go, not to be a part of a schedule arranged long ago, not to go on with the show — to be a captive of his desk at the White House at a critical hour in history — would be (for him) worse than whatever physical punishment might be visited upon him.

And so, off he goes. And bless him, this, the farewell of his 45 years of service to his country.

—Bob Considine

SPEAKING OF BASEBALL reminds me of a new pest I ran across the other day — the thoughtless baseball fan with a portable radio. And no ear phones.

Was watching the parade to the post before that background of Lakes and Flowers Tuesday trying to figure where to risk my $2 show bet, when there was a sudden eruption of sound.

TWO MEN were bent over a portable radio. Why they were bent over it, I don't know. It was so loud you could have heard it had it been on the other side of the track.

"It's one and two on Mickey. Here comes the pitch. WOW, that ball is going, going, gone. Here come three Yank runs. That ought to be enough, folks."

IT WAS ENOUGH for one determined-looking woman three rows ahead. She stood up and faced the pair with a stern glare. But the radio kept blasting so she started to broadcast, too.

Told them to either watch the galloping or go home.

They were defiant at first but when they saw they were two against a thousand, they shushed the thing up.

The hue and the cry
Resound now all day,
The school doors are closed,
The kids home to stay.

That calm interlude between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. is no more.
Not for parents, anyway. It's the teachers' turn.

SCHOOL BUS drivers are happy, too. Had a talk with one of them the other day.

"No more spit-balls in the back of the neck. No fights to referee. No more waiting for kids to run a half a block, drop their books and have to go back.
Life can be so wonderful."

AFTER A PAUSE. "But I don't know about it. Whether I can take it. This unusual quietness."

"Just like a guy coming out of a boiler factory. The silence hits you hard."

"I'm trying to get a summer job. Driving special kids' excursions to Disneyland."

"ON THE WHOLE, though, the kids are pretty good on the whole. Guess they had the pants scared off them about what could happen if they weren't.
And you hear such marvelous talk."

"I've learned more about space ships, missiles, jet planes in the past year than I would have in four years in college."

JUST ABOUT all of them are rabid Dodger fans. Any umpire would have a bad time on a Palm Springs school bus. You see, the Dodgers would have a perfect record now if it weren't for the prejudiced umps.

"I remember one kid whose parents spent the winter here from some place in Pennsylvania."

"He was a popular kid until April. Then, because he was a Pirate fan, even the girls snubbed him."

Boss of All Bosses

HOLLYWOOD — Jackie Cooper is the boss of all bosses in TV — as far as his company workers are concerned. Not only will the cast and crew have a four-day week but the shooting schedule will be revised for a 2-11 pm gig . . . because of the hot weather. And that means a LOT of overtime!

Looks like a complete career shift for Steve Allen. His contract with NBC terminated (and just when Steve made the change to the West Coast) and he's taking to writing tunes with an occasional guest spot.

A WEEK OF CHECKING the seven Los Angeles TV stations brought out a startling fact for the censors — there were 1348 incidents of violence! Strangely enough, the western series are more guilty than the crime series!

Denise Darcel saw a horror movie on TV that was so frightening even the monster in it got scared!

Lever Bros. just purchased the full-hour TV colorcast, Moment of Fear, starting July 1. These suspense stories lead off with the telling of what happens after the sudden death of a presidential candidate in the year 1972!

WE'RE GOING to have another Oriental star in our midst with Nancy Khan when she finishes Suzie Wong. This comes from no less a veteran than William Holden. Nancy's co-star and he's going to know it.

WE JUST LEARNED Brigitte Bardot will be wearing glasses in her next movie. Two things: The glasses won't fool anybody — and who's gonna stop making passes?

If you've ever wondered why you read that some star is up for so many different movies at the same time, it must be because it takes a lot of offers to make just one deal. Latest is Glenn Ford being talked about for his umpteenth movie, Tender is the Night. But when you read Glenn is dining with David Selznick AND George Cukor, you can bet he's getting to the serious stage.

Lombardo Sets Jones Beach Job

By JACK GAVER

NEW YORK (UPI) — Guy Lombardo is warming up for his seventh season as producer of the annual summer extravaganza in the waterside Jones Beach Marine Theater on the south shore of Long Island. June 23 is the opening date.

This year's attraction will be an updated version of an old Broadway success called "Hit the Deck," a nautical comedy with score by the late Vincent Youmans. The sailor motif fits right in with the Jones Beach setup of a water-surrounded stage.

Lombardo's Royal Canadians orchestra will be incorporated into the show this year. The band leader's record at Jones Beach consists of three previous shows, "Arabian Nights," "Show Boat," and "Song of Norway." Each ran two summers.

This is the new musical with score by Meredith Willson, of "The Music Man" fame.

'Fact-Book' Yields Data on 'Usher' Film

By GEORGE LAINE

About the time I was cutting teeth, a fellow named Bob Sill was re-cutting his journalistic molar in the editorial offices of the Los Angeles Times. That was back in pre-depression days.

Yesterday Sill blew into town to "take over" the assembly of Saturday's big charity premiere of "Fall of the House of Usher" at the Plaza Theater here. The premiere is being sponsored by the Teen-Angels to benefit the Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation.

ANYWAY, HERE came Sill into the office, a diminutive little man with a receding hairline and florid forehead touched with dots of perspiration. He was carrying his coat, which indicated that he had realistic attitudes.

"I came down," he started out, "to try and get the Plaza ready for the show. But I just came from the theater. There's nobody there."

He seemed a little incredulous about this state of affairs, but was assured that there'd be "somebody there" eventually.

HE FLIPPED HIS stubby fingers through a fact book on the film.

"If you want to go through this," he offered, "you can. It's full of the usual publicity stuff but you might find something."

"The two guys who own American International Pictures will both be down here for this Saturday thing," he said. "Incidentally, you might be interested to know that they started their studio with about $3,000 six or seven years ago and now they're financially independent."

INCLUDED IN THE "fact book" — quotation marks are my own — was the information that Village artist Burt Schoenbong did all of the paintings that Vincent Price is attributed to have done in the film. (Schoenbong must have had mixed emotions with this assignment since all of the paintings are destroyed — like the Usher house — in the last scene.)

Anyway, the sheet was a sort of chuckle or so in spots.

A girl named Hilda Black, who tendered a feature-type thing on the film, said that " . . . it's likely that Edgar Allan Poe would be pleased at the masterly way in which his brilliant yarn (sic) has been transferred to the screen in CinemaScope and color (Poe would first need an explanation on what CinemaScope is, of course).

And now, if Mr. Sill will come back and pick up his "fact book" on the picture, I can relax and wait for Saturday and the film itself.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: Sandy Fitzgerald is leading in the ticket sale race for the "Date With Mark Damon" which will be a built-in feature of the premiere evening . . . Close second at this point is Desert Hot Springs' Geri Leonard . . .

Two Local Boys Graduate From Elsinore N&M

Two Palm Springs boys, Master Sergeant Joseph D. Ingram, son of Mrs. Betty Luce of 31-050 San Joaquin Drive, and Corporal Samuel Griffin, son of Mrs. Glee Griffin, were among the graduates from Elsinore Naval and Military School Saturday morning June 11.

The two cadets received their diplomas, in an impressive military ceremony, from Mrs. Dorothy Long, superintendent of the Junior School. Master Sergeant Ingram sang a solo number accompanied by the Glee Club.

ANNUAL BIRTHDAY celebration for one Village coterie found these four "birthday babies" all in one location — Ray Blumenthal's La Verne Way home. Above are Ben Gross, Dorothy Lynch, Blumenthal and Lee di Stefano—all of them with June birthdays. Not on hand for this year's annual observance was Barbara Gresham, who has attended in past years. Following the get-together in the Blumenthal household, the entire party—a total of 17 persons including the celebrants—toured to Bermuda Dunes where another June child, Taylor Dunlevie, was being feasted at a party hosted by her husband, Ernie Dunlevie. (Desert Sun Photo).

"Amateur Gardeners' Tin Can Shower" was the theme of the Saturday morning bridal shower brunch hosted by Ruby Guest, poolside at her Sandpiper apartment in Palm Desert, honoring Angela Buccino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Buccino of Rancho Mirage who is being married Saturday to Conrad George Walker.

Each of the 25 guests invited brought canned goods, mostly of the garden variety, and to confuse the issue a few of the labels had been torn off the cans so the bride-to-be will not know what she is giving her husband for dinner.

To make the shower a little livelier the packages of canned good were hidden in various parts of the grounds surrounding the apartment and each time an alarm went off, which was at three-minute intervals, the bride-elect scurried for another package to be opened.

Following the retrieving of the gifts the group went swimming. A table decorated with fresh vegetable floral pieces centered with white doves, was set up under the ramada where refreshments of half cantaloupes filled with fresh fruits were served along with finger sandwiches.

Miss Antoinette Yarrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antoinette Yarrow of Cheviot Hills, and Robert Lee Mennell, whose parents are Herbert R. and the late Irene Mennell of Palm Springs, were married in a candlelight ceremony at the Westwood Hills Christian Church on Saturday evening, June 11.

The bride was lovely in a Ca-hill gown fashioned of organdy with a long torso bodice, full floor-length skirt, and yoke of Guipure lace. With this she wore a fingertip veil of bridal illusion attached to a circlet of orange blossoms. Her flowers were white roses. Her four attendants wore dresses of powder-blue nylon organdy made with full, satin-banded skirts, and carried cascade bouquets of pink carnations.

The bride is a graduate of University High School and of U. C. L. A. While on the Westwood campus, she served as president of Alpha Omicron Pi social sorority, was a member of Spurs, Paphilic Judicial Board.

The groom is also a graduate of U. C. L. A. and has completed one year of law school. At U. C. L. A. he was affiliated with Acacia social fraternity, Rally Committee, and other campus organizations.

The couple will live in Westwood until they travel to Massachusetts in the fall where the

Ortiz Keeps Crown by Beating Loi

Champion Seeking Crack at Joe Brown For Lightweight Title

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Carlos Ortiz, who successfully defended his world junior welterweight championship Wednesday night, hopes challenger Duilio Loi did him a favor by making him look bad in taking a 15-round decision.

"Loi made me look bad. So maybe Joe Brown, the lightweight champion, will fight me now," Ortiz said after the fight. "When you look too good, they won't give you a shot."

ORTIZ SOLVED a bobbing defense of the Italian Loi, holder of the European welterweight title, in his first journey past the 10-round distance.

"I knew the fight was close. My trainer told me at the end of the 12th I would have to go all out to win," the 23-year-old champion said.

"So I poured on the steam then."

THE EXTRA DISTANCE was supposed to favor the challenger, the 31-year-old Loi, who had gone 15 rounds 12 times and on four occasions had gone 12 rounds. But Ortiz was not bothered by the five added rounds and finished full of fight.

He did not have an easy time of it, winning narrowly on the cards of the referee and one judge, and losing the vote of the other judge.

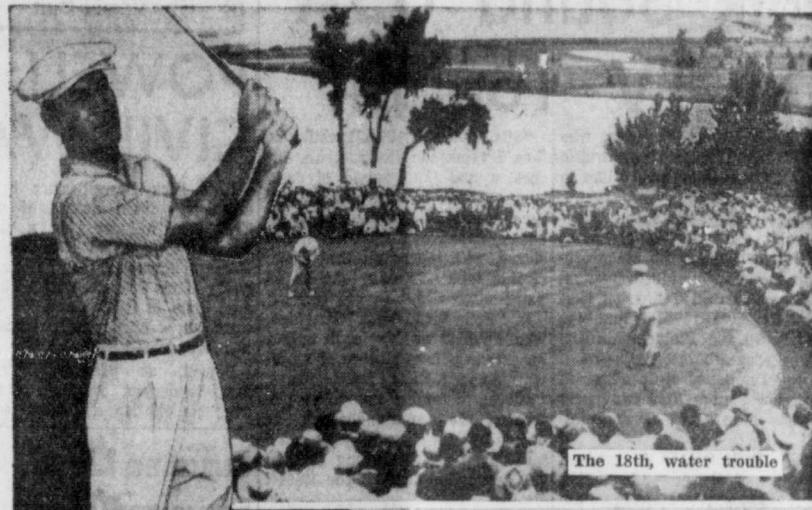

OLD AUTOS NEVER DIE—THEY BECOME SALTON SEA 'REEFS'

Continuing its building of artificial fishing reefs in Salton Sea, the Department of Fish and Game has just placed 130 more old auto bodies on the bottom of the sea off the Bombay Beach area.

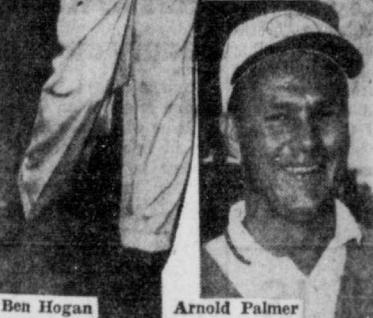

The junked cars were laid in a 2,000-foot line in 35 feet of water, approximately one mile off the east shore, 3½ miles northwest of Bombay Beach. This is one of three Salton Sea areas where car body reefs were first established last winter.

Similar reefs have also been placed off the Coachella Waste-way on the east side of the Sea.

TOP CHOICES FOR victory in the U.S. Open, which got underway today at Denver's Cherry Hills course, were these ace golfers. Arnold Palmer and Art Wall, Jr., are both rated as possible winners, with Ben Hogan, four time winner of the title, a sentimental choice for the gallery. Cherry Hills hosted the Open in 1938 and is reputed to have the most rugged water holes in the western U.S. The 18th, a par four at 468 yards, has a pond to the left, and the 17th, a real water hole, is set out in the lake. (CPA Photo-Montage).

YANKEES, INDIANS TIED FOR A.L. LEAD

By United Press International

That treadmill American League race reached the "Can you top this?" point today when the New York Yankees advanced into a first-place deadlock on the strength of a tie.

It was a long, hard road for the Yankees, who hadn't owned a share of the AL lead since the early days of the 1969 season and it ended on a slightly ridiculous note when the umpires finally threw up their hands at 2:32 a.m. e.d.t., Thursday morning and declared a 7-7 tie between New York and the Kansas City Athletics.

THE YANKEES HAD twice let the Athletics stage three-run rallies to tie, once in the ninth and once in the 12th, and then in the 13th the rain came in sharp, slanting pelts. The umps looked at the weary athletes and managers in both dugouts and mercifully said, "Let's all go home."

As a result, the Yankees' 29-21 season record tied them with the Cleveland Indians, who split a twin-night doubleheader with the Baltimore Orioles, winning 10-2 and losing 13-5. Both the Yankees and Indians have .500 percentages and the Orioles are practically glued to their backs with a .579 mark.

THE CHICAGO WHITE Sox whipped the Washington Senators, 6-4, and the Boston Red Sox pulled out a 10-inning, 4-3 triumph over the Detroit Tigers in the other AL games.

The Pittsburgh Pirates increased their National League lead to three games with a 14-6 win over the San Francisco Giants;

Spring Festival

Folk Sound USA On TV Tonight

Producer Robert Herridge, who believes viewers want more music shows on television, would like to put them there.

Producer of "Folk Sound USA" Thursday, June 16 (10-11 p.m., p.d.t.) and each of the other programs in the Spring Music Festival series on the CBS Television Network, Herridge reveals that the response to the Philadelphia Orchestra program last week—as it was to "The Sound of Jazz" which he produced more than two years ago—has been "just overwhelming."

"I'VE PERSONALLY received hundreds of letters—all saying 'More! More!'" Herridge declares.

"I'd like to do a regularly-scheduled show called 'The Sound of Music.' But then," he adds, wistfully, "Rodgers and Hammerstein already have that title for their Broadway show so maybe we'd have to think of something else. Anyway, that's the idea. A regular show utilizing all of the kinds of musical sound—from harmonica to symphony orchestra.

"SUCH A PROGRAM could be—as I think the Philadelphia Orchestra and 'The Sound of Jazz' were—a feast for the eyes as well as the ears. We've learned a lot about camera work on music shows, with the result that shows of this type now can take on an extra dimension."

In "Folk Sound USA" Herridge, who doubles as his own writer, expects to paint a picture of America with song. "The idea," he says, "will be to form a composite picture of the country through its people as they work, play and love—from the beginning through the depression days of the 1930s."

"TO PAINT HIS CANVAS," Herridge uses such authentic "brushes" as Casey Anderson, dramatic balladeer; Peter Yarrow, lyric balladeer; John Lee Hooker, singer of road songs and big city talkin' blues; and Cisco Houston, specialist in western-type numbers and the talkin' blues.

There will also be a blue grass band and a choir of 25 under the direction of Tom Scott.

POWELL STARS IN CIVIL WAR DRAMA

Host Dick Powell stars in an deadly battle between rabid Southerners Ab Richards and Ab's son Will, and harness-maker Ned Parker, the only Northern sympathizer in town.

Sanderson resumes his duties, only to have the townspeople demand his resignation when they learn he fought for the North. Ben's troubles are compounded when the Union Army sets up a camp near the town and the ranchers, under orders from Richards, refuse to sell beef to the post.

Suzanne Lloyd Stars as Roman Beauty on Show

Suzanne Lloyd stars as the femme fatale of an escort bureau in Rome who thinks Ray Markham can fit into her money-making scheme in "Escorts à la Carte" on "Markham" Thursday, June 16 (CBS Television Network, 9:30-10 p.m., p.d.t.)

Ray Milland stars as private investigator Ray Markham, who decides he must disguise himself as a dapper gigolo in order to discover the murderer of an old friend, Sam Roth, played by Jack Scrooge.

Jack Smith and "You Asked For It" cameras answer four viewer requests when they watch the maneuvers of the famed Oak Island motorcycle police drill team; don clown makeup and capture the faces in the crowd attending a circus performance; go aboard an English whaler in the Antarctic to watch the new method of capturing whales with ultrasonic sound waves; and watch as Zsa Zsa Gabor demonstrates her athletic prowess. 'WAGON TRAIN' IS TOP SERIES ON TV

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — If the rating systems are accurate, the most popular TV series of the 1959-60 season is "Wagon Train."

It principal star, Ward Bond, has been appearing in horse operas since 1928—more than 100 in all—and is in a position to know what makes an oat-burner burn, especially "Wagon Train."

"BOND, AS GRUFF and outspoken as the Major Adams character he portrays on the series, says the program's success is due to its format.

"The show never stands still," he said. "The Wagon Train keeps moving from place to place. That way it can contact any kind of character or groups—Indians, rustlers, the army, settlers and outlaws. It travels through towns, plains, mountains and des-

"WITH A FORMAT like that we can come up with a variety of shows that other programs just can't match."

"Another reason why our show stays up there is that it tells about people instead of things," he went on.

"You can keep the public interested in what happens to other people, and that's what we've done for the past three years. Looks like that's what we'll be doing next year, too. The program has been renewed for the 1960-61 season."

THE HOUR-LONG NBC adventure drama alternated throughout the season with CBS-TV's "Gunsmoke" for top spot. Because "Wagon Train" is also the number 1 show in England, the network lays claim to the fact that it is "seen by more English speaking people than any show in the world."

"There are a couple of other reasons why we're on top," Bond said. "Our guest stars are among the best you can find. That helps a lot."

"We also take it easy on the violence. I hear complaints if we have too much violence, and we get kicks if there's too little action. So we try to keep everything in balance."

Dr. Howard Murphy of Pacific Palisades presents Part III of his authentic films of his unique voyage across the Atlantic with a crew of five young men and a Gibson ape, "Quest Across the Atlantic," on Jack Douglas' "The Atlantic Voyage," Tuesday, June 16, 7:30 p.m., KCOP, Channel 13.

In this episode, viewers will join him in crossing the Atlantic and visit Gibraltar, Majorca, Sardinia and Malta.

Shoplifting Given As Divorce Reason

A dentist claims his wife's shoplifting has caused him much mental anguish and sues for divorce on grounds of mental cruelty during KTTV's "Divorce Court," Thursday, June 16, 8 p.m. Channel 11.

A husband who claims he was under such nervous and mental strain because of his wife's kleptomania that his business suffered and a wife who contests the action claiming that her husband is involved with his assistant and wants to marry her before acting Judge Voltaire Perkins.

Appearing in court is the mother of the wife who claims there was a plot between the dentist and his attractive assistant and that he merely wants to rid himself of the court.

of his wife so he can marry this other woman. The dentist's assistant appears in court claiming she has received several telephone complaints concerning the dentist's wife, but the psychiatrist who examined the wife contends that her kleptomania was caused by emotional insecurity.

Judge Voltaire Perkins probes for cause and effect in regard to the charges of mental cruelty and reviews the testimony to determine who actually has been guilty of thievery before he presents his ruling to the court.

775 Horses Will Vie in Competition

Santa Barbara's
41st Annual
Horse Show Slated

SANTA BARBARA — A total of 775 show horses are entered in competition at the 31st annual Santa Barbara National Horse Show, which runs July 8th through 16th, it has been announced by Robert P. Rose, president of the board of directors.

Entries closed June 4.

THIS LARGE NUMBER will make it necessary to stable more than 100 horses in stalls adjacent to the show grounds, according to Allen Ross, the secretary-manager. In fairness to exhibitors who will be competing frequently and also those who are coming from as far-a-way as the State of Washington, junior show entries and those in limited classes will be the ones assigned to nearby stalls.

THEWEST'S LEADING stables will be represented here. They are coming from Oregon, Washington and Arizona as well as all parts of California. Horses and riders will compete for more than $32,000 in cash and trophies.

Published June 16, 1960.

County Grants Survey Okeh For Eastwood

County Planners File Vigorous Objection to Plan

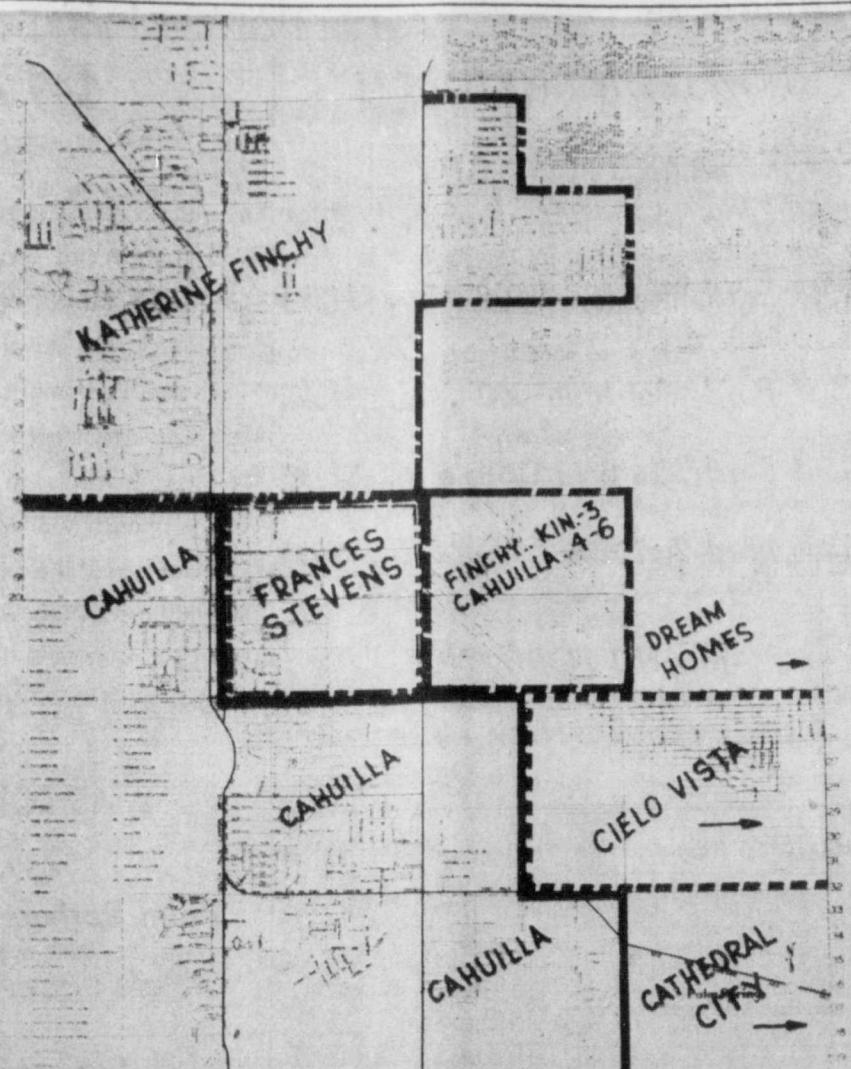

In spite of renewed opposition by the county planning commission to approval of a Record of Survey development proposed by Dolph Eastwood of Indio for property at the southeast corner of 38th and Adams northwest of Indio, the Board of Supervisors voted approval this week subject to provision of 150 by 100-foot building pads elevated to a height 1 1/2 feet above the highest water elevations anticipated as possible once in a 100-year period.

Motion for approval of the development was made by Supervisor George Berkey. The vote was four to one with Supervisor Curtis Chamberlain dissenting.

ACTION ON the proposed development was held up previously to permit the Coachella Valley to study an engineering report submitted by Arthur Swajian, Indio engineer, in behalf of the developers.

Lowell O. Weeks, general manager and chief engineer for the water district, after studying the Swajian report renewed a previous statement that the property is in an area subject to stormwater runoff from Thousand Palm Canyon and other adjacent canyons.

GRADE SCHOOL PUPILS in Palm Springs will attend schools in these areas next fall. Because of the impending Dream Homes area school to be constructed in Section 17, that portion is shown as a separate school, but the pupils will attend the Cielo Vista school until the new plant is ready for occupancy, probably the second semester of the 1960-1 school year. Children in the area bounded on the south by East Ramon Road, north by Ajero Road, west by Sunrise Way and east by El Cielo Road will be divided by grades, with kindergartners through third graders attending Katherine Finchy School, and fourth through sixth graders attending Cahuilla School. Other divisions are as shown, with the Frances Stevens-Cahuilla school line being Indian Avenue. Katherine Finchy district extends northward to the Whitewater wash; old line was Highway 99. Suntown Pair Net Big Catch Fishing recently at Salt Creek, Salton Sea, Bill and Ethel Mauldin pulled in seven plump corvina.

Business called Al and Ethel Tilden northward to San Jose for a few days. Shortly upon their return they were pleasantly surprised by a visit from their son and family.

Not expected until fall, Fred and Ruby Martelle made a hurried trip back from a five week's stay in Detroit. They report snow the day of their departure and admit that desert warmth really feels good.

COUNTY TO EMPLOY MORE DOGCATCHERS FOR CV REGIONS

Employment of an additional man to work as county poundman in the Coachella Valley unincorporated area was approved by the Board of Supervisors this week. He will work out of Indio, picking up stray dogs in the desert area between Cabazon and Imperial County, and as far east as Desert Center.

Administrative Officer Robert T. Andersen said that the humane society in the valley has agreed to take care of the dogs in compliance with the county's dog control laws for 50 cents per head per day, impounding the dogs in the Indio city pound.

Only Chance For Accord Is UN-Lavan

1960 U.S. Chairman Stresses Need for Understanding

NEW YORK (UPI)—Peter I. Lavan believes that "mankind's ultimate accord" will come from but one place—the United Nations.

Lavan is 1960 national chairman of the United States Committee for the United Nations, a non-partisan group of 130 national organizations. The committee's objective is to "disseminate facts about the United Nations, to arouse interest in the United Nations, and to promote the observance of U.N. day in the United States.

"FOR THE FIRST time in history man has a town meeting of the world where he can air his disputes, the United Nations," Lavan said. "It is to this meeting to which our President, our State Department, our nation and the world must turn for mankind's ultimate accord."

Lavan is senior partner in the New York law firm of Stroock and Stroock and Lavan, author of "Bombs and Basic Religion," and has served in a number of federal posts.

DOES LAVAN BELIEVE that the United Nations is accomplishing anything?

"I do not believe that all the major views of the Communist world will be reconciled with those of the free world in the foreseeable future," he said. "But I do believe that there will and must be a reconciliation of so much of the conflicting views as would clash in world war if remaining unreconciled."

"AS A PRACTICAL matter, I think that while the basic ideologies will continue separate and apart, nevertheless, the political differences responsible for the cold war will gradually find an accord."

WANTS SECURITY

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: Will you please settle a dispute of long standing? Every time my husband and I drive through Cairo, Illinois, we see a statue standing in the park just off the main highway.

My husband says it is a man cutting wood, and I say it is a man killing a snake. He says, "Whoever heard of anybody putting up a statue of a man for killing a snake?" And I say, "Whoever heard of putting up a statue of a man for cutting wood?"

Are we both wrong? I don't have time to look up Cairo's history. I am busy making history as we have ten children. Thank you.

KATHLEEN B.

DEAR KATHLEEN: Your husband is right. The statue is a very famous one, called THE HEWER, and it is indeed a monument to a man cutting wood.

DEAR ABBY: Had to giggle at the old gal who was so hurt because she was referred to as an "old maid."

Many of my single friends are far happier than my married ones. At least they don't have to put up with some crotchety old grouch after 8 hours at the office. Old maids are luckier than they think.

ONE, TOO.

DEAR ABBY: I am 43 and have been married and divorced and have two children to support. Four years ago I met a married man (he is now 46) who told me his wife didn't understand him, but he'd never divorce her because of their three minor children.

I thought if he wasn't happy with her I might as well have him, so for two years I heckled his wife with mysterious phone calls and letters telling her her husband didn't love her and was stepping out. She finally divorced him last December.

We have been seeing each other constantly, but now that he is free still won't marry me. I found out he is trying to get his ex-wife back. I would do anything to get this man to marry me, as he is well-to-do and I would not have to work. After being a wife to him every way but legally, can I sue him for not marrying me?

WANTS SECURITY

DEAR WANTS: IF you want to know your legal rights — see a lawyer. On second thought, why don't you just head for the rocks and join the rest of the snakes?

Abby's best-selling book, "Dear Teen-ager", is on sale at all bookstores.
